

GRANTS

Our Grants column provides information on the CIRCLE grant application process. An up-to-the-minute list of funded proposals on youth civic engagement, their authors, and supported institutions is also included.

APPLY FOR CIRCLE FUNDING: THREE NEW RFPs ANNOUNCED

CIRCLE is pleased to announce three new grant competitions for research on the civic engagement of young Americans. The three RFPs and application guidelines can be found at www.civicyouth.org/grants. Please note that the deadline for submitting mandatory letters of inquiry is September 19, 2003. Anyone interested in applying for CIRCLE funding should visit our Web site, as our granting policies have changed.

CIRCLE grants are made possible by the generous support of The Pew Charitable Trusts and Carnegie Corporation of New York.

WHAT CIRCLE SUPPORTS

CIRCLE funds research, not practice. However, all CIRCLE-funded research should have implications for specified categories of practitioners such as legislators, candidates, teachers, educational administrators, youth-serving organizations, journalists, professional associations, or nonprofits that work to encourage youth voting and political participation. ★
